

National Aerospace Library

— Aviation History Journals

Journal articles often contain detailed information on specific aircraft types or aerospace projects which is unavailable in books or monographs, and this is particularly so in the field of aviation history of which the Library holds extensive runs of many of the key titles published over the years.

The current year and previous year of current journal titles are held at the Society's Library at Hamilton Place, while many 1,000s of issues of older unbound issues have now been transferred to the National Aerospace Library at Farnborough including among many other titles:

Aeroplane Monthly/Aeroplane
Air & Space

Air-Britain Aeromilitaria
Air-Britain Archive
Air-Britain Aviation World
Air-Britain News
Air International
Air Pictorial/Aviation News
Aerospace Historian/Air Power History
Airfield Review
Airpower
American Aviation Historical Society (AAHS) Journal/Newsletter
Cross and Cockade International Journal
Fly Past
Icare
Pegase
Pionniers
Putnam Aeronautical Review
Torque Meter: Journal of the Aircraft Engine Historical Society

Wings
Wings of Fame
World Air Power Journal
WW1 Aero

Enquiries concerning references in these titles should be directed to the National Aerospace Library (Tel: +44 (0)1252 701038/+44 (0)1252 701039; e-mail: hublibrary@raes.org.uk).

Complete bound sets of Air Enthusiast, Airplane: the Complete Aviation Encyclopedia, Propliner, Flight, The Aeroplane, Aeronautics, Aircraft Engineering, Aviation Week and Space Technology and numerous other important pre-1950 aviation journal titles from around the world are held for reference at the Library at Hamilton Place.

