

“BLOODHOUND SSC – ‘The 1000mph Car’”

Tuesday 23rd March 2010
at 6.00pm

Royal Aeronautical Society
No.4 Hamilton Place
London W1J 7BQ

Joint Evening Lecture by Wg Cdr Andy Green

Wing Commander Andy Green is a Royal Air Force Fighter Pilot and, as the holder of the World Land Speed Record, is ‘The Fastest Man on Earth’. Driving Richard Noble’s Thrust SSC (SuperSonic Car) in 1997, Andy set the world’s first and only supersonic land speed record at an astonishing 763 mph, driving literally ‘faster than a speeding bullet’.

After setting the outright Land Speed Record in 1997, he went on to drive the JCB DIESELMAX carin 2006. Andy is now the driver for the new BLOODHOUND SuperSonic Car, which aims to exceed the incredible target of 1000 mph.

This joint GAPAN, Air League and Royal Aeronautical Society Young Members lecture is open to all and free to attend.
